DEBTOR'S EMERGENCY MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO PAY ALL CREDITORS
AND TO DISMISS CASE

Now comes International Gospel Party Boosting Jesus Groups, Inc., Debtor in the above proceedings, and moves on an emergency basis to extend the time to complete its financing and dismiss case stating that:

1. At a hearing conducted on May 24, 2011 this court granted, with certain provisions, the motion filed by Joseph G. Butler, Chapter 11 Trustee, to sell the real property located at 554 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Ma. The Order directed that a formal order incorporating the terms of the sale and extent of authorization be submitted.
2. The Trustee submitted a formal order which was docketed by the court on June 9, 2011. The order contained provisions, consistent with the the ruling issued from the bench on May 24, that no closing was to take place prior to June 24 and that if the Debtor secured the necessary funding to pay all claims and the court dismissed the case on or prior to June 23, then the order authorizing the sale would be vacated.
3. The Debtor's lender provided the Debtor a notice dated June 20, 2011 stating that the application for funding had completed processing and was "in final preparation for bank wire transfer". A true copy of the communication is attached hereto at A. To the extent that the funds are insufficient to cover all expenses the Debtor's princial has informed counsel that he spoke with his parents and that the parents have indicated that they would help. The Debtor's principal has further indicated that his parents have the financial means to immediately cover any deficiency from liquid assets.
4. A short delay will enable the Debtor to retain its only aset and still enable it to pay all creditors as set forth in this court's order.

WHEREFORE International Gospel Party Boosting Jesus Groups, Inc. prays that this court extend to and through June 30, 2011 the time within which it can provide the necessary funds to pay all obligations as set forth in this court's order and ask that the case be dismissed.
